

BOOK |

Crime, Policy and Security: Security Management and Public Protection

Philip Thorne · Natasha Du Rose

Centre for Security Research and Studies, United Kingdom

Centre for Security Research and Studies | Book

DOI: <https://doi.org/10.66923/books/9781068662249>

Abstract

A practical and authoritative guide to security management and public protection across public and private policing environments. The book explores leadership, governance, risk, and operational practice, integrating strategy, policy, and real world application to support safer organisations and communities.
